

Sarah Fowler has worked for Pegasus Solutions for the past 15 years. Sarah is responsible for the Strategic and Commercial Relationships with Pegasus largest Key European Customer and works to develop the business between the two parties.

Sarah has worked for the Hospitality Arena for the past 34 years and has gained knowledge and experience in the industry, from working for Supply and Demand partners along with a key Distribution Supplier. Her path has taken Sarah through every aspect of Distribution and is recognised for having a true understanding of Distribution at every level. Sarah has been on the HEDNA Board of Directors for the past three years and was elected as Vice President during 2009.